The Victoria Division of the Australian Acoustical Society invites you to the:

AAS WORKSHOP

“Expert Evidence and Acoustics”

to be presented by Hugh Selby

Following on from the success of the recently held NSW Division workshop, the Victorian division will be holding a 1-day workshop on expert evidence, presented by Hugh Selby.

Hugh Selby is a teacher in the Law Faculty at the Australian National University. Hugh Selby teaches and writes about courtcraft (a range of techniques that are useful to advocates and witnesses in our courts and tribunals). He trains experienced lawyers and expert witnesses, police, law students and high school students, drawing upon teaching skills developed here and in the USA.

The workshop will cover the following:

1. How to prepare a report which teaches and persuades; and,
2. Being a comfortable, competent expert witness in a court or tribunal.
3. Understand what makes an acoustic report good

Detailed analysis will be undertaken of an error ridden acoustic report. Each attendee will also be provided with a set of notes as part of the workshop.

Date: 4th March 2008
Time: 9am – 5pm
Venue: SKM Theatre, 590 Orrong Road, Armadale.
