

Australian Acoustical Society

State Seminar 2009

Friday 28th August 2009

Rothschild's Function Room, Perth Zoo

Labouchere Rd South Perth (south of the zoo's main entrance)

Preliminary Program (subject to change)

Time	Item	Presenter
9.00	Registration and coffee
9.20	Welcome	Alec Duncan, Chairman WA Division, AAS
9.30	Listening to beaked whales: the deployment high-frequency noise loggers in the Coral Sea	Iain Parnum
10.00	Policy Developments in Environmental Noise in WA	John Macpherson
10.30	Morning tea
11.00	Autonomous Undersea Surveillance Sensor Network (AUSSNet) Capability Technology Demonstrator (CTD) Project	Sandro Ghiotto
11.30	Some project reviews from the NDY Perth office	Luke Zoontjens
12.00	Annual General Meeting	Alec Duncan, Chairman WA Division, AAS
12.30	Lunch
1.30	Managing Noise in the 21st Century	John Macpherson / Brigitte Sieger
2.15	An update on national occupational noise issues.	Pam Gunn
2.45	The value of long term sea noise records for whale and fish studies along the Western Australian coast	Rob McCauley
3.15	Afternoon tea
3.30	Adaptive noise reduction	Jessica Manea
4.00	Submarines and sonar	Darryl McMahan
4.30	Close	Chairman WA Division, AAS

30 minute slot allows for presentation and questions totalling 25 mins, and changeover of 5 mins.

Cost: Members $30, Non members $40, Students $20. No charge for presenters. Lunch and morning/afternoon tea will be provided.

RSVP to Rebecca Donovan:
rebecca@lgacoustics.com.au
9313 3655