

Senior Acoustic Consultant

Are you a senior acoustic consultant who has ambition and is looking to lead a team and run a department?

JTA Health, Safety & Noise is an OHS&E consulting firm that has been operating since 1988. Our focus has always remained the same – objective assessments of risks and the development of practical solutions. Our core mission is to provide Occupational Health and Safety and Environmental services of the highest standard. JTA specialises in Occupational, Environmental and Construction acoustics.

JTA is currently looking for a highly motivated person with excellent communication skills to join our Acoustics Team with the medium-term goal of leading the acoustics department.

This position will be suited to a candidate with solid experience in a similar consulting environment, who is looking to develop their skills and be rewarded for growing the department. Ideally, you will be proficient in conducting environmental noise assessments, be proficient in vibration assessments and be commercially minded.

To be considered for this position you will have/be:

- Flexible, versatile, adaptable with a good sense of humour and a positive outlook
- Well-developed organisational and time management skills
- Leadership qualities
- Able to work independently on complex projects, and within a team environment
- Well-developed report presentation, written and personal communication skills

Responsibilities of the role:

- Technical duties (monitoring, modelling and analysis)
- Report preparation and project management
- Chairing internal and external meetings with colleagues, clients and authorities

Requirements:

- A tertiary degree in Engineering/Science or similar
- A strong understanding of acoustics and noise control principles
- An understanding of relevant acoustic standards and legislation
- Advanced use of MS Excel and Word
- Current Australian Drivers Licence and Permanent Residency

What's on offer?

- Competitive salary package, commensurate with experience
- Ongoing training, career progression and leadership opportunities
- Full-time position with an immediate start
- Inner Bayside office location
- Flexible working arrangements with the opportunity to work remotely and in the office

If you believe you are the person we're looking for and want to join a team of like-minded individuals, please submit your resume and cover letter to kerri@wellingtonconsulting.com.au.
